

Patrolman Jerry L. Daily, P-90 (1938-2017)

Jerry was born February 28, 1938. He attended Hughes High School, graduating in 1956.

After high school, Jerry served for 8 years in the Army National Guard of Ohio, United States Army Reserve, and the United States Air Force Reserve.

Jerry joined the Cincinnati Police Division as a Police Cadet on April 15, 1958 and was assigned to Central Station (City Jail) in the basement of City Hall. He was promoted to Police Recruit on October 12, 1959 and to Patrolman on February 3, 1960. He was issued Badge Number 90 and assigned to District 5 (Ludlow Avenue). On November 27, 1960, he was rotated to District 1 (Lincoln Park Drive) and would remain there the rest of his career. On October 10, 1967, Patrolman Dailey resigned with 9½ years of service to his country and community.

Patrolman Dailey went on to serve in the United States Treasury Department and graduated from the Internal Revenue Service Law and Criminal Investigation Academy in 1968.

Patrolman Dailey passed away suddenly on Friday, February 17, 2017, 11 days short of his 79th birthday.

Patrolman Dailey is survived by his wife, Pastor Wanda Dailey; children, Sharon (Mike) Maul, Lisa Robbins, David (Julia) Robbins, Jeremy (Jackie Freeman) Dailey, and Jennifer Asalon; 5 grandchildren; 2 great grandchildren; and sister, Gussie (Patrick) Kelley.
