

Greater Cincinnati Police Historical Society Social Security Windfall Payment Pledge

The Social Security WEP penalty no longer applies to cops getting Social Security benefits. If you collect Social Security, in the next few months you will be getting a lump sum repayment retroactive to January 1, 2024.

Likely, the lump sum will be thousands of dollars that you never had any expectation of receiving.

The Greater Cincinnati Police Historical Society asks that, when you get it, you will gift $1000 of your windfall to help us finally move our museum to a permanent home out of Over-the-Rhine.

Most of you know, that:

- We operate the only regional police museum, serving over 100 agencies in three states,
- It is the largest law enforcement museum, by artifact and archive count, in the country,
- It is the Number One attraction in Greater Cincinnati, according to TripAdvisor.com,
- We have written enhanced obituaries for 882 law enforcement employees since 2013, and
- We have researched and written complete narratives of 207 tri-state line of duty deaths.

But we do far more for you and your families, agencies, and communities. Too many to list here.

Please pledge a portion of your treasure to help us continue our mission:

PLEDGE

I do hereby pledge, upon receipt of the lump sum owed me from the Social Security Administration to gift the Greater Cincinnati Police Historical Society and Museum with a one-time, one-thousand-dollar ($1000.00) grant. I understand that this pledge is contractual in nature, it is intended for the sole benefit of the Society, and my gift will result in my name being added to the Museum's Roll of Honor and every other recognition afforded those enrolled. I further understand that I will receive no benefit of any kind in return, that the Greater Cincinnati Police Historical Society is a non-profit charitable organization, and therefore my gift may be fully tax-exempt under section 501(c)(3) of the IRS code.
